HOD Desk

A very warm and hearty welcome from the Department of English at Shri V N Arts and A N Commerce College, Mangrulpir that belongs to the renowned Amar Shikshan Prasarak Sanstha. The department is committed to mission of developing the communication and soft skills of the students. We are constantly striving hard to hone the communication talent of the students and help them in self-expression.

We believe that English language brings out their hidden potential and sets them on smoothly in their quest for job. We impart not only Communicative English to students but also moral, ethical and professional values and help them build their overall personality. We help them to develop their soft skills i.e. interpersonal skills and perform well in placement interviews, group discussions and other recruitment processes. We arrange for guest lectures and help the students interact with eminent language experts so that they become competent to face the job market even at the global level.
